

Dual Enrollment English

Skills

- Written and verbal communications
- Research
- MLA format
- Literary analysis

Courses/Credits

- English 1101-Composition and Rhetoric (3 hours college credit, 1 high school credit)
- English 1102-Literature and Composition (3 hours college credit, 1 high school credit)

What we cover:

- ENGL1101-Write an argument essay presenting your side of an issue and citing reputable research. Grammar review and other short assignments.
- ENGL 1102-Building on knowledge from 1101, write essays and cite research related to our class readings that include poetry, plays and short stories.

Related careers:

- Teaching (high school or college) $38-65K
- Writing: $33-81K
- Journalism: $30-66K
- Law: $65-150K

Pathway Expectations

Expectations: You are a young adult; therefore, I expect you to act responsibly. You will come to class prepared. While in class you are engaged. You are responsible for your learning. I am responsible for your instruction. Working together, you will be successful in your education.

Requirements:

None

Supplies:

- Pencils and/or pens of various color
- 1” to 1½” Binder
- Paper

Where can you find us?

- Remind
- Blackboard
- TEAMS

Instructor Contact Information:

Melissa Orrison

morrison@centralgatech.edu

Office Hours:

By appointment

Class Sessions: TBD

Questions?

If you have any questions, please scan the QR code with your phone and fill out the form.

