

Dual Enrollment Math

Skills:

- Critical Thinking
- Problem Solving
- Number Sense

Experience:

You will learn general problem-solving strategy, various function characteristics and their inverses, and expand your math vocabulary.

High School Credits:

- 2 Math credits (1 per course)

College Credit:

- 6-credit hours (3-credit hours per course)

Potential Jobs and Salaries:

- Chemical Engineer $65K
- Civil Engineer $56K
- Computer Engineer $68K
- Mechanical Engineer $62K
- Risk Analyst $69K

Pathway Expectations

Expectations: You are a young adult; therefore, I expect you to act responsibly. You will come to class prepared. While in class you are engaged. You are responsible for your learning. I am responsible for your instruction. Working together, you will be successful in your education.

Requirements:

None

Supplies:

- Pencils and/or pens of various color
- 1" to 1½" Binder
- Paper

Where can you find us?

- Remind
- Blackboard
- TEAMS

Instructor Contact Information:

Louis Guerra

478-779-4818

louis.guerra@bcsdk12.net

Office Hours:

2:30 to 3:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays by appointment

Class Sessions: Mondays and Wednesdays

AM Session from 8:00 to 10:00 a.m.

PM Session from 12:15 to 2:15 p.m.

Questions?

If you have any questions, please scan the QR code with your phone and fill out the form.

